THE BIG ART SALE

A DAY OF ART, FOOD AND FUN!

The Big Art Sale, now in its 19th year, has become the most eagerly anticipated event for art lovers and artists alike. It is regularly attended by more than 5000 people over the weekend. The “Big Art Sale” is one of the single most important What’s Out Addis events in partnership with Hilton Addis Ababa. It will take place in a large, airy pavilion at the Hilton Addis Ababa on Saturday, April 13 and Sunday, April 14, 2024, from 10 am to 4 pm.

Over 250 talented, local artists will display a variety of their original work, plus prints, which will also be for sale. This is also a chance to meet the artists.

A shaded area will be set up under the trees where food and drinks will be served. Young art lovers and budding artists, accompanying their parents, can be engaged in the Kids’ Corner.

As well as providing an opportunity for artists to sell their work, the event will also raise funds for charity.

Whether you’re a seasoned art collector or just starting out, there is something for everyone at the Big Art Sale. Bring your friends and family to enjoy the vibrant atmosphere while browsing a mesmerizing collection of artworks.

Join us for this amazing chance to acquire a piece of original artwork that touches you.

What’s Out! Addis, in partnership with Hilton Addis Ababa, presents: “The Big Art Sale 2024”

ROPHNAN NURI

REDEFINING THE LANDSCAPE OF ETHIOPIAN MUSIC.

Set to make history in the Ethiopian music industry, Rophnan Nuri, the visionary electronic dance music expert, has announced the simultaneous release of two albums. Titled "Harambe" and "Nor", these albums mark Rophnan's third and fourth studio albums, following the success of his previous works, "Yene Twold" and "Netesebraq". His upcoming releases promise to be a sonic journey that transcends cultural and musical boundaries.

One of the most exciting aspects of Rophnan's upcoming albums is the inclusion of internationally renowned artists featuring a collaboration with the Jamaican reggae sensation, Chronixx. This adds a global dimension to the albums and is expected to captivate audiences both in Ethiopia and beyond. The albums will be available on all major digital music distribution platforms, ensuring that fans worldwide can easily access and enjoy the groundbreaking music created by this Ethiopian trailblazer.

Rophnan was born and raised in Addis Ababa, the ninth child of 10 children in his family. When he was just 10 years old, Rophnan started recording tapes in his classroom; singing and improvising drums to entertain his friends. His music style uniquely merges traditional Ethiopian instruments with contemporary electronic music. At 16 years old, Rophnan released his first mixtape which introduced him to the Ethiopian club scene.

BECOME YOUR OWN BARISTA: INTRODUCING BARISTA SKILLS 101 #2

Yonas Seifu (co-founder and head barista of popular cafe Enitewawek Cafe) has a career spanning more than 15 years of working as a Barista exclusively within the hospitality industry. He has also provided barista training to international organisations here in Addis. He also worked for seven years as a barista and cafe manager for a busy central cafe in downtown Auckland in New Zealand!

Yonas, who speaks both Amharic and English, is now offering small, unique classes (up to 5 students) on how to become your own Barista, and in both languages! This is definitely the class to take if you seek to master the art of coffee making in your own home and be able to wow your guests! It is also an ideal class for those individuals seeking employment in the hospitality industry especially as upon completion and attendance of all classes, you will graduate with a certificate.

Classes are weekly and run for 4 weeks. Modules taught cover an overview and introduction to coffee, learning about coffee machines and brewing, understanding the use of milk, and of course tasting and practicing coffee extraction! The concluding class will allow you to use your newly acquired skills and finesse at making the perfect cup of coffee!

The next round of classes starts on the 7th of April and runs for 4 Sundays/weeks 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th (3:45-5:45 / 2 hours each session).

*Contact Yonas for more info on the next Barista training classes:

HOMEMADE LABNEH

This homemade labneh is the perfect addition to a mezze board. It's a tangy, Mediterranean yogurt cheese made with only two simple ingredients!

SERVINGS: 8

COURSE: Appetizers, Condiments, Dips

PREP TIME: 5 minutes

TOTAL TIME: 2 days

INGREDIENTS

- 32 ounces whole milk yogurt
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- Za'tar for serving
- Extra virgin olive oil for serving

INSTRUCTIONS

- Line a fine strainer with a thick cheesecloth and set over a bowl.
- Place the yogurt into the cheesecloth carefully and sprinkle it with salt. Stir to incorporate. Tie the cheesecloth on the top to prevent any air from entering the yogurt.
- Set aside the yogurt in the cheesecloth-lined strainer on the counter or in the refrigerator for 24-72 hours, depending on your desired thickness.
- Remove the strained labneh from the cheesecloth, and transfer it to a serving dish or bowl. Use the back of a spoon to make a swirly pattern on top of the labneh.

EQUIPMENT

- Fine mesh sieve/strainer
- Mixing bowls

NOTES

Storage: You can store homemade labneh in an airtight container in the refrigerator for up to 2 weeks.

Substitutes: For best results, follow the recipe as is. However, feel free to use Greek yogurt instead of whole milk yogurt if you'd prefer.

BOOK REVIEW

APRIL 2024

Moved by the devastating media coverage of Ethiopia in 1985,
John packed his bags to volunteer for the Save the Children Fund...

NOISES AFTER DARK

Memoirs of a Doctor in East Africa
JOHN TOMLINSON

MEMOIRS OF A DOCTOR IN EAST AFRICA BY JOHN TOMLINSON

Moved by the devastating media coverage of the humanitarian crisis in Ethiopia in 1985, John Tomlinson packed his bags to volunteer for the Save the Children Fund. However, faced with diminishing supplies, poorly trained staff and murmurs of civil unrest, the enormity of the task soon became clear.

Noises After Dark offers first-hand experiences of historical events, and pays tribute to the unsung heroes working in conflict zones back then and today. John's memoir reveals the truth, both good and bad, behind the news stories and ultimately how his time there led to his realisation that health is not only about health care. Now, he plans to raise money and awareness for Save the Children charity, through his memoir Noises After Dark.

John: "I went to Liverpool Medical School, which also has a Tropical School of Medicine, and I had already developed an interest in this area of medicine. The real impact was when I saw TV scenes of the humanitarian crisis in Ethiopia. The shocking and tragic scenes of the biblical famine in Ethiopia were like nothing that we had ever seen before. The scenes gripped everyone. On a personal note, the report haunted me for days after. At that time, I was still a junior doctor going through training, but I decided that I could do more than just donate and, as a doctor, I could actually volunteer and contribute in some way. So, I volunteered with Save the Children Fund who were very active in East Africa at that time."

IBBY - PROMOTING A READING CULTURE FOR ETHIOPIAN CHILDREN

IBBY (The International Board on Books for Young People) is a non-profit organization committed to bringing books and children together. IBBY Ethiopia is a new chapter.

Recent nationwide literacy tests throughout Ethiopia revealed how few students are learning to read well in any language. There is a lack of sufficient quality, culturally appropriate children and youth books in the local (70-90) languages.

Ethiopia has a growing population of 120 million and a long history of oral storytelling but there are limitations on children's book publishing given economic and other challenges. Sharing quality books from Ethiopia would benefit both the children of Ethiopia as well as the children of the world.

Ethiopia has definitely made great strides toward educational goals in recent years but still struggles with adequate teacher training and getting materials into the hands of students.

Current Ethiopia IBBY leaders include Yoseph Ayelew, who is an author, leads local printing and distribution and has been a long-time literacy advocate. Alex Regassa is an illustrator who also teaches art classes for kids at local schools.

IBBY is also working with a number of other authors, translators, illustrators and organizations supporting libraries, literacy and education in different parts of Ethiopia. IBBY Ethiopia's Mission is to support creating a reading and writing culture in Ethiopia, promote Ethiopian children's and youth literature in Ethiopia and internationally, and assist in developing reading projects to increase Ethiopian children and youth's access to quality books and develop a love of reading.

THE ETHIOPIAN HERITAGE MUSEUM IN THE PARK

The distinct heritage house that remained standing while everything around it was being demolished (to make way for Friendship Park, phase 02, opposite the Abrehot Library) definitely piqued peoples interest. So it was great to learn that the house was transformed into Yimtubezina Museum and Cultural Center (YZ), a unique collection of cultural objects and devoted to creating a living, interactive learning experience through events and exhibitions.

YZ is an independent, private museum and historical entity. This former residence of Woz. Yimtubezinash Habte was constructed in 1892 E.C., by Indian architects and reflects significant architectural, societal, and historical values, combining Ethiopian and Indian traditional architecture from that period. Despite the fact that the house was built during an dominant patriarchal period, where women's independence and power were both undervalued, this house was built by a strong and determined woman, Yimtubezinash Habte and is just one of only ten houses registered as heritage sites bearing a woman's name.

The residence passed down through five generations and there were periods of threats of demolition until it was officially established as Yimtubezina Museum and Cultural Center.

YZ has exhibitions on a rotating basis, each lasting 1-4 months. The first temporary exhibition was "Horsemanship in Ethiopia". "From Culture to Creativity" is the fascinating and beautifully curated current exhibition focusing on a century of Ethiopian Jewelry; Tradition, Changes and Continuity.

Be sure to visit this charming museum on your next visit to the Park and learn more about its history and background on the links below. There's also a small gift shop and cafe on site.

EXPLORING THE INTERSECTION OF CULTURE AND INTERIOR DESIGN

As most of us have spent the last month fasting, for both Muslims observing Ramadan and Christians observing Lent, let's take a moment to explore how culture and religion shape the very spaces that we inhabit. Interior design isn't just about picking furniture and paint colors – it's a reflection of who we are and what we believe.

Do you ever notice how Indian culture fills spaces with vibrant colors and intricate patterns? It's like bringing a bustling market or a colorful festival right into our homes. From detailed woodwork to mesmerizing textiles, Indian influence adds a burst of energy and warmth to any room.

Then there is the French touch. The French are all about detail. Think about antique furniture and delicate embellishments that whisper tales of history and imbue elegance. Every time you walk through those French-inspired doors, it's like stepping into a cozy Parisian café or entering a grand chateau. On the other side of the world, Japanese design brings a sense of calm and simplicity. Minimalism is the name of the game here. With clean lines, natural materials and just the right amount of Zen, it is all about creating a space that's free from clutter and chaos; a peaceful sanctuary in the midst of our busy lives.

Lets not forget Mediterranean culture that spans many countries and multiple cultures. With its rustic charm and earthy tones, Mediterranean design brings the outdoors inside.

With globalization and increasing interconnectedness, are we at risk of losing the rich tapestry of cultural influences that make each place unique? It's a question worth asking ourselves, as we continue to navigate this ever-changing world!

ETHIOPIAN ARTIST TESFAYE URGESSA

TO REPRESENT ETHIOPIA AT VENICE BIENNALE ●

Artist Tesfaye Urgessa has been selected to represent Ethiopia at the 2024 Venice Biennale, the first time that Ethiopia will be participating with a national pavilion at the event.

The 60th International Art Exhibition will take place from Saturday 20 April to Sunday 24 November, 2024 at the 13th-century Palazzo Bolani.

In recent years, Tesfaye has gained international recognition including presenting, "Tesfaye Urgessa in Miami" with Saatchi Yates in 2022 for Miami Art Week, and "No Country for Young Men" in 2019 for Addis Fine Art in Addis Ababa, among others.

The Venice exhibition will adopt the theme, "Stranieri Ovunque – Foreigners Everywhere". Other nations such as Benin, Egypt, France, Great Britain, Nigeria, Netherlands, Portugal, South Africa, and Tanzania have already announced their intention to showcase African and diasporic perspectives.

Born in 1983, Tesfaye Urgessa is known for his paintings that depict human bodies in the center of domestic scenes. His subjects, often stoic and muscular, staring the viewer directly in the eye, are exposed and vulnerable. Balancing gestural form with a sharp color palette, his paintings reflect his personal experience with racism once he moved from Ethiopia to Germany.

The selection of Tesfaye to represent Ethiopia at the Venice Biennale is a significant stride for Ethiopia in the global art scene. After earning his degree from the Ale School of Fine Art and Design in Addis Ababa in 2002, Tesfaye took his talents to Germany in 2009, where he enrolled in the Master's program at the Staatliche Akademie der Bildenden Künste Stuttgart. Later, he returned home and currently lives and works in Addis Ababa.

CHEWATACON HONOURS CRITICAL MASS CO-FOUNDER MAREN AHLERS

APRIL 2024

A POPULAR MONTHLY COMMUNITY MASS BIKE RIDE

Representing all cyclists in Addis Ababa, Egere Menged አግረ መንገድ's Co-founder Maren Ahlers received Chewatacon's recognition for 'The Best Emerging Engaging Experience of the Year' for Critical Mass Addis Ababa', a popular monthly community mass bicycle ride.

Maren grew up in Münster, Germany, known as the 'bicycle capital' of Germany. She never used anything other than a bicycle to go to university, the grocery shop, or to visit friends.

When she moved to Addis Ababa, she missed the freedom and ease of riding a bicycle, especially while stuck in the city's traffic jams. As Co-Founder and Executive Director of Egre Menged Impact, she can now spread the convenience of riding a bicycle in Ethiopian society.

Co-Founder, Ephrem Bekele Woldeyesus, grew up in Dire Dawa, where cycling was very popular because of the street-friendly nature of the city. Ephrem and Maren together began to promote an active mobility culture in the country. Ephrem has an added interest in the health benefits of cycling.

Today, the monthly cycle meet-up and bike ride enthusiasts attract a diverse group of individuals eager to participate, from families to couples, including Ethiopians and ex-pats.

Chewatacon, through the Ethiopian Games Association announces winners annually in 16 categories. The Chewatacon Award Program aims to recognize people, processes, and products/ services that contribute greatly to the development of the Ethiopian Gaming Ecosystem. Chewatacon aims to celebrate Ethiopia's gaming culture and explores dimensions of games and play in the local context and beyond.

Egre Menged is proud to have created the remarkable experience of Critical Mass Addis Ababa with partners, Anbesa Bike Ride Addis Ababa as well as other local bicycle groups.

OLYMPIC TORCH RELAY EXCITEMENT & ANTICIPATION IN ETHIOPIA

Sebastien Cailleux began his journey in Ethiopia the goal of surpassing the four medals won at the last Games in Tokyo in 2020. The Ethiopian Olympic Committee (EOC) hopes that this Olympic year, Ethiopia will be in the best possible form ready for Paris 2024. The event will take place in the French capital and other cities in France.

Aware of the importance of the Games, the EOC has embarked on a series of activities aimed at surpassing the gold, silver, and two bronze medals won three years ago at the Tokyo 2021 Games. Ethiopia has participated in the Olympic Games since Melbourne in 1956 and has won a total of 58 medals (23 gold, 12 silver, and 23 bronze) in long-distance and marathon running.

In terms of competition and using the Olympic year to promote their country's sport, the EOC plans to participate in pre-Olympic activities in all regions and municipalities. The Olympic torch relay will generate funds, boost athletes' morale, and gain unwavering community support, as well as display a fair and transparent selection process for athletes and coaches.

The national Olympic torch relay began in Mekelle in January and has been completed in Semera city in the Afar region, with a symposium and different sports competitions. The Olympic torch relay will culminate in a spectacular closing ceremony in Addis Ababa on 15 July 2024, days before the start of the 33rd Olympic Games in Paris. The Oromia region received the Olympic torch passed from the Afar region as it continued its route to Addis Ababa.
