Dear Friends

We are excited to bring you an issue full of new discoveries this month.

Ethiopian fashion brand Afro Maya was delighted to be selected by Ethiopian Airlines to sell two of their iconic scarves for in flight purchases so keep any eye out for them when you next fly on ET!

Lee Lega store celebrates and highlights traditions of Ethiopia with its new presentation of a healthy and delicious traditional Ethiopian delicacy called Chiko that dates back centuries (our cover image this month).

International standard Ethiopian Tahini with the finest sesame seeds from Humera in the north of Ethiopia is now being distributed locally as Yosel Tahini and they make a chocolate tahini as well as regular.

For recreation, consider visiting the recently opened Kuriftu African Village near Addis which is all about celebrating the countries and cuisine of Africa. Then there is Arba Minch in the south which our travel photo journalist Michael Metaferia profiles with gorgeous images.

Have a good month.

LEE LEGA STORE: BRIDGING ETHIOPIAN TRADITION WITH MODERN AESTHETICS ■

Founded in 2024 by Hiwet (Lily) Legesse, Lee Lega Store was born from a passion to introduce the rich cultural heritage of Ethiopia to the world in a modern, accessible way. With a vision to honor Ethiopian traditional values, the store seeks to offer authentic products while combining them with contemporary aesthetics to appeal to a global audience.

The signature product of Lee Lega Store is Chiko – a traditional Ethiopian delicacy that dates back centuries. Chiko is a unique protein bar made from barley, butter (ghee), salt, and spices. It's not just a treat, but a piece of Ethiopian culture that has been cherished by generations. One of the remarkable aspects of Chiko is its shelf life. Unlike many foods, Chiko doesn't spoil or expire quickly; it can be preserved for up to a year or even two, making it a convenient, long-lasting option for busy lifestyles.

Lee Lega Store currently offers Chiko in five delightful flavors: Basic Chiko, Quanta Chiko, Spicy (Awaze) Chiko, Cereal (Qolo) Chiko, and Sweet Chiko. These flavors represent an exciting blend of tradition and innovation, ensuring there's something for everyone to enjoy. Lily says, "The key to our success lies in the careful attention we pay to both the quality of ingredients and the presentation. Historically, Chiko and other Ethiopian products were often stored in simple, unattractive containers. At Lee Lega Store, we aim to elevate these age-old products with thoughtful packaging and premium quality to bring them into the global marketplace. We are excited to share the flavors and culture of Ethiopia with the world, one delicious product at a time".

Their commitment to preserving tradition while embracing modernity is at the heart of Lee Lega Store.

ARBAMINCH: A LAND OF FORTY BLESSINGS

Arbaminch (meaning "forty springs" in English) earned its name from its groundwater forest, which is home to more than forty crystal-clear springs. Drinking the cold water straight from these springs is an unparalleled experience.

Arbaminch has forty more blessings than just the forty springs it is known for. It is home to Lakes Abaya and Chamo, the second and third largest lakes in Ethiopia, following the majestic Lake Tana. A boat ride on Lake Chamo offers the chance to observe various aquatic birds. Keep an eye out for the magnificent African Fish Eagle nesting in the dry treetops, or, if you're lucky, you might see one diving to catch a fish.

The islands on the lake host the famous "crocodile market," not a place to buy crocs but where the largest Nile crocodiles can be seen basking in the sun.

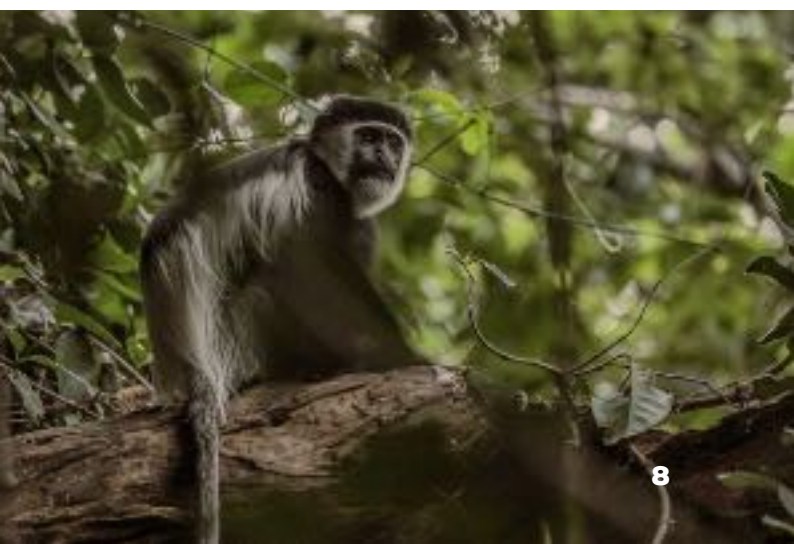

It is also home to the iconic God's Bridge, a natural 1 km long strip of land separating these two lakes. Nech Sar National Park is a place where you can easily spot Burchell's zebras, and Arbaminch also houses the only crocodile ranch in Ethiopia.

Last but not least, one of the most welcoming and friendly people in Ethiopia, the Gamo, call this place of abundance home. Here, point your camera at the locals and you will find someone smiling at the other side of your lens, rather than looking away.

"Asham, Asham" and "Saro" are their popular greetings, and it is common to greet strangers to make them feel welcome. Learning a word or two of Gamo greetings is a great way to make new friends.

There are at least three daily flights from Addis Ababa to Arbaminch, where you'll find some of the finest accommodations offering breathtaking views. Arbaminch is an ideal destination for a weekend family getaway, a work retreat for companies, or simply a place to relax and unwind amidst nature.

7 BENEFITS OF BOILING GARLIC IN MILK A HEALTH REMEDY THAT WORKS IN DAYS

JUNE 2025

DIPE

Boiled garlic milk, a traditional remedy, combines the powerful health benefits of garlic and milk into one soothing drink. Here are seven reasons to try this natural elixir:

1. Boosts Immunity & Eases Respiratory Issues

Garlic's antimicrobial properties help fight colds, coughs, and asthma. When boiled in milk, it soothes the respiratory system and reduces inflammation.

2. Improves Digestion

Garlic stimulates digestion and milk soothes the stomach, helping relieve issues like bloating and constipation.

3. Enhanced Sleep

Warm milk contains tryptophan, a sleep-inducing amino acid, while garlic reduces stress—making this drink a great bedtime aid for better sleep.

4. Supporting Heart Health

Garlic can lower cholesterol and blood pressure. Paired with milk's calcium and potassium, this drink promotes overall cardiovascular well-being.

5. Reduces Joint Pain

Garlic's anti-inflammatory compounds, like allicin, help ease arthritis and joint pain, while milk strengthens bones with its calcium content.

6. Improves Skin Health

The antioxidants in garlic fight aging, while milk hydrates and nourishes skin, promoting a clearer complexion over time.

7. Aids Detoxification

Garlic helps cleanse the liver and kidneys by removing toxins, while milk supports hydration and toxin elimination.

How to Make Garlic Milk:

- Crush 3–4 garlic cloves and boil with 1 cup of milk.
- Simmer for 10 minutes, strain, and add honey if desired.
- Drink warm, preferably before bedtime.

Note: Avoid if allergic to garlic or dairy. Consult a doctor if pregnant, breastfeeding, or on medication. Garlic milk is a simple, natural remedy with a wide range of benefits, but it's not a substitute for medical treatment

The accessory line includes eye-catching silk scarves, handcrafted jewelry, tote bags, and even custom mugs—all available through their website.

A major milestone was celebrated on April 27, 2025 when Bement Maru, the founder of Afro Maya, announced a proud moment for the brand. In an event attended by family, friends, and media, it was revealed that Ethiopian Airlines has selected two of Afro Maya's scarves—one featuring the iconic Adey Abeba print and the other showcasing Ethiopian art faces—for in-flight sale. This partnership marks a significant step for the brand, bringing Ethiopian artistry to a global audience.

Afro Maya isn't just about fashion—it's about honoring identity, promoting cultural pride, and making a positive impact through every design. Whether you're shopping for bold style or meaningful expression, Afro Maya invites you to wear your story with pride.

Beneath the African Sun

a memoir

Barry Maughan is a lifelong writer and was an international broadcaster and journalist for more than forty years. During that time, he plied his trade on four continents, including stops in Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Germany and the United States. In this enthralling narrative, Barry invites you to relive the exhilarating, dramatic and often comical escapades that defined his years traversing Africa.

Now retired, the last twenty-four years of his career were spent at the Voice of America in Washington DC, where he retired as chief of the English to Africa Service. Since his retirement, Barry has kept busy writing about his extensive travels and life experiences in 'What Won't Fatten Will Fill', 'Please Turn Out the Northern Lights When You Leave' and now 'Beneath the African Sun'. If you've ever questioned your own audacity after pulling off something utterly fantastic, you'll definitely relate as Barry unveils a world where courage knows no bounds.

Barry's experience of six years on the continent of Africa unfolded like a tapestry of extraordinary moments, from the tumultuous days of Emperor Haile Selassie's overthrow in Ethiopia to the devastating drought and subsequent famine in Ethiopia's northern province of Wollo. His writing career covered news coverage of several major events on the continent, as well as highlighting endearing moments like a simple roadside negotiation for a humble stalk of bananas in Uganda and witnessing two mothers sharing a spontaneous and heartwarming moment amid the scenic beauty of northern Kenya. Barry's adventures relayed in this book are nothing short of captivating.

DISCOVER THE HEALING TOUCH OF REFLEXOLOGY AT ASHARA WELLNESS

REJUVENATE YOUR BODY, MIND, AND SPIRIT

Located in the heart of Addis Ababa, Ashara Wellness is a sanctuary of holistic healing, best known for its expert Reflexology treatments and commitment to whole-person care. Founded by wellness expert Yared Alemayehu, Ashara brings over 15 years of experience in mind-body therapies to provide a healing experience that reaches every layer of your being.

Reflexology at Ashara is more than a foot massage—it's an ancient healing art. By applying gentle pressure to specific points on the feet, hands, and ears that correspond to different organs and systems in the body, our trained therapists help stimulate natural healing, improve circulation, and release deep-seated tension. Clients often experience reduced pain, deeper relaxation, better sleep, and a noticeable lift in mood.

Our dedicated Reflexology Center, located in the Ambassador Building at 4 Kilo, offers a calm, hygienic environment where you can unwind and reconnect with your well-being.

In addition to reflexology, Ashara Wellness offers a full spectrum of holistic services, including:

- Yoga
- Aromatherapy
- Hydrotherapy
- Sound Healing
- Natural Beauty Therapies

Every service is thoughtfully designed to restore balance and vitality to body and mind. Whether you're seeking relief, relaxation, or renewed clarity, Ashara Wellness offers compassionate care rooted in expertise and integrity.

FROM SEED TO SHELF: KROTAJ AND YOSEL TAHINI BRING WORLD-CLASS FLAVOR TO ETHIOPIA

Ethiopia, home to some of the world's finest sesame seeds from the Humera region, is now producing tahini that meets top international standards—thanks to KROTAJ Tahini Manufacturers PLC. This international joint venture, based near the heart of Ethiopia's sesame belt, is redefining what it means to produce high-quality, traceable, and nutritious tahini locally.

Using sesame seeds sourced exclusively from Humera, KROTAJ crafts tahini known for its rich texture, deep flavor, and high nutritional value. The company is certified under FSSC 22000 Version 6.0, the latest and most rigorous global food safety standard, and holds Kosher certification—ensuring purity and cross-market accessibility. It is also progressing toward organic certification, in line with rising demand for clean, responsibly sourced foods.

Making this premium tahini easily accessible across Ethiopia is Yosel Tahini, the official local distributor. Yosel ensures wide availability in supermarkets, local grocery stores, and now online through platforms like Deliver Addis and ZMALL, offering a new level of convenience for Ethiopian consumers.

One of Yosel's standout offerings is its Chocolate Tahini, a delicious blend made with 70% tahini and 30% dark chocolate. This product is dairy-free, vegan-friendly, and suitable for both fasting and non-fasting seasons, making it a versatile pantry staple. Like all Yosel products, it reflects the same commitment to quality and innovation. Both the Chocolate Tahini and Regular Tahini will be available soon on Telegebeya, expanding access even further.

Yosel Tahini is also proud to meet US FDA standards and is currently available not only in Ethiopia but also across the markets of the US, EU, and more, affirming its global appeal and compliance.

From busy households to health-conscious foodies, Yosel Tahini offers a delicious way to enjoy the best of Ethiopian sesame. Its growing presence in both physical and online markets reflects a broader trend toward plant-based nutrition and premium local ingredients.

Together, KROTAJ and Yosel Tahini are not just selling a product—they're advancing Ethiopian agricultural excellence and bringing national pride to the global stage. By marrying premium local sourcing with world-class standards, they're putting Ethiopia's sesame sector on the map—one jar at a time.

SOS CHILDREN'S VILLAGES: ETHIOPIA'S 50-YEAR LEGACY

STANDING BY CHILDREN THEN, NOW, AND ALWAYS

SOS Children's Villages began its work in Ethiopia in 1974, establishing the first SOS Children's Village in Mekelle Programme Location in response to the devastating drought in the northern region. Since then, its reach has grown significantly. Today, it operates across eight regional states—Tigray, Amhara, Harari, Oromia, Southern Ethiopia, Sidama, Central Ethiopia, and Somali—as well as in the city administrations of Addis Ababa and Dire Dawa.

SOS Children's Villages in Ethiopia currently runs nearly 40 projects nationwide, providing holistic care and support to children and families in need. From emergency relief in conflict-affected areas to inclusive education, disability support, youth empowerment, alternative care and family and community strengthening, SOS Children's Villages in Ethiopia is a lifeline to many.

A standout initiative, now marking its 10th year, is the EDUCARE project—launched to address school dropout rates in the Amhara region. EDUCARE has since expanded across Debreabor, Debreremarkos, Woldia, and Gondar. To date, it has benefited the lives of nearly 123,000 children and caregivers in the region by integrating education, community, and family-based solutions.

On June 16th and 17th, 2025, SOS Children's Villages in Ethiopia will celebrate "A Decade of Hope and Impact," honouring the EDUCARE project's lasting contribution to education and empowerment. This milestone is especially significant as the initiative expands to Waliso, following the successful completion of its operations in Nekemte—where over 1,500 individuals have been positively impacted, equipping nearly 1,000 children with essential life skills and enabling 90% of them to access improved educational opportunities, while significantly reducing school dropout rates.

In a time of rising needs and limited resources, children cannot wait. Help us continue this mission—partner, volunteer, become a sponsor or spread the word.

Be part of the change!
